

This proceeding is ridiculous. Legitimate businesses need to use the communication method of faxing in order to conduct business. There are already enough regulations in place that have to be followed, what is next? Regulating when we can open the US mail or go to the bathroom? I think the people creating these proposals are bored and apparently need more to do. Give us a break!